

“There is absolutely no doubt that Sudha has undergone musical training from the great genius and maestro, the Dr.M.L.Vasantha kumari. I always tell myself, “Oh! My God! I must get good words to describe her music.” “If I were left deserted on a lonely island, and if I were granted permission to hold 3 products that I liked very much, I would list the following in order of my preference:

- A) An audio-visual cassette of singer Sudha Ragunathan;
- B) Betel leaves and tobacco to chew on while listening to the music;
- C) Poet Kannadasan’s works.

A Critique by K.S.Mahadevan

“Freshness, supple expression, undulating tones, architectonics of an amazing magnitude and exquisitely delicate transitions of depth and culture enable her art to bewitch the listener.

She has a formidable arsenal of classical pieces of different tempo and thala. ‘Laya’ or metre is equally her strength. On top of all this, is Sudha’s melodious voice capable of moving, throwing out beautiful sparks like a Roman candle.”
